Culture

- 1 Sant Esteve Church
This dates to the 16th century and is in late Gothic style. It was partially demolished at the end of the Spanish Civil War.
- 2 Sant Sebastià Church
The original church dates to the 10th century and was fortified against pirates in the 14th century. It has a single nave covered with a barrel vault.
- 3 El Trull Multi-Use Space
A historic building transformed into a cultural multi-use space with an oil museum, exhibitions, etc.
- 4 La Riera Bridges
These are 17th- and 18th-century stone bridges; especially notable are the Molí bridge and the Corder bridge.
- 5 La Pitja Fountain
This is the most central fountain in town, located between the Fonda Felip and El Celler.
- 6 Els Lledoners Fountain
This is one of the town's citizens' most beloved sites. It is part of the poetic landscape of Tomàs Garcés and bears one of his texts.
- 7 Mollor Fountain
This is made up of a wide semicircular arch with narrow slate slabs.
- 8 Eiffel Beams
These iron beams from the famous French engineer are inside el Trull.
- 9 Salt del Molí
This waterfall is named after an old mill that was here until the 17th century.
- 10-12 Defensive Towers
The wall surrounded the town and protected it from pirates. Some of its 16th- and 17th-century towers are still preserved.
- 13 Municipal laundry
The town laundry was built in 1926 and is part of Catalonia's inventory of architectural heritage.
- 14 Centre Cultural Les Escoles
The old schools were built during the Second Spanish Republic; this is currently a cultural center and restaurant.

Restaurants and terraces

- 16 Les Escoles
This former school has been transformed into an entertainment and cultural center and restaurant. There are creative tapas, rice dishes and ... the essential patatas bravas (fried potatoes with a spicy sauce)! This is ideal for families.
C/ Port de la Selva, 11 | (+34) 686071397
- 17 Stop bar
This historic town bar is a former cinema and dance hall and is specialized in tapas and sandwiches. There is a magnificent terrace with billiards and foosball tables.
C/ Port de la Selva, 1
- 18 Bar Felip
This terrace in the town center is perfect for a noon-time vermouth or a dinner composed of small snacks. Try the oysters, cream, and truffle omelet.
Camp de l'Obra, 4 | (+34) 621218123
- 19 Bacco Osteria - El Celler
This is located in the old Bodega d'en Fages de Climent and serves traditional northern Italian food: risotto, juicy ragu, and vitello tonnato (veal in tuna sauce).
Camp de l'Obra, 1 | (+34) 622303614
- 20 Pizzeria Sol de Nit
Artisanal pizzas are made with top-quality ingredients in this emblematic space.
C/ Sant Esteve, 11 | (+34) 972126404
- 21 Can Perleta
This is a very cozy Galician tavern located in a typical village house, featuring "a feira" octopus, homemade croquettes, and peppers stuffed with cod.
C/ de Baix, 16 | (+34) 972126360
- 22 Brascó Cap de Creus
This is a family and sports space that also features a restaurant known for its grilled meats.
